A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of cough in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Stomach Trouble.

"I have been troubled with my stomach for the past four years," says D. L. Beach of Clover Nook Farm, Greenfield, Mass. "A few days ago I was induced to buy a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. I have taken them of late and feel a great deal better." If you have any trouble with your stomach try a box of these Tablets. You are certain to be pleased with the result. Price 25c. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Don't forget the G. A. R. Campfire at the streetcar barn tonight. Admission free.

A ten-months-old babe adopted by Mr. Joe Kain of Front street died yesterday afternoon.

Messrs. J. C. Kirk & Son shipped to Cincinnati this morning 200 hogs, 40 sheep and 2 cows and calves.

The march of progress seems to be Eastbound so far as the city is concerned, if we judge by the hum of the wheels of industry.

The extreme cold weather the past two evenings has caused a noticeable diminution in the evening constitutional riders on the streetcars by the fair sex.

Lawrence Klein, a wealthy German butcher, died at his home in Dover Wednesday night of cancer of the stomach. He was 71 years of age and leaves three children.

The brick pavements put down in Forest avenue between Wood and Union streets are improvements that are certainly appreciated by those who pass over that part of the city.

By request of Joe Heiser Post, Chaplain Jacob Miller will conduct religious services at the streetcar barn tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, instead of at 3, as announced yesterday. The public invited.

People who have an affection of the head and are compelled to wear their hats should either take a small one to the Opera-house or occupy a seat in the rear. There are other people who pay as much to see the performance as they do, and it is impossible to get satisfaction behind a hat as large as an ordinary umbrella.

Rev. J. B. Henderson of Saybrook, Ill., brother-in-law of Q. A. and R. F. Means of East Second, was here yesterday en route to his old home in Lewis county, having left there 52 years ago. He notes many changes since his absence, the majority of his boyhood associates having died and gone to their long home.

Colonel Morris B. Belknap was in the city yesterday. He was en route to Vancburg where he is billed to speak today and his short stay with us was in the nature of a social call. His reception, however, was hearty and cordial. Last night he was a guest at the Campfire and had a heart-to-heart talk with the large crowd present and made a fine impression on all who heard him.

The Rector and General Missionary request readers of this notice to show it to their deaf mute friends, and the neighboring papers to copy it.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT.

"Way Down East" Last Night Pleased A Fair-Sized Audience.

Managers Russell, Dye and Frank, together with Booking Manager Hamilton, certainly deserve to be thanked by the fair-sized audience that greeted the company at the Opera-house last night in "Way Down East" for the most excellent entertainment.

There was not a flaw in the entire performance, everything moving off smoothly, while the different characters of the cast were ably represented, each one being a star in his or her particular role.

The entertainment was first-class, and such plays rendered by capable people deserve to have a packed house.

There was some delay in getting started last night, owing to the late arrival of the scenery, but the celebrated Maysville Orchestra kept the spirits of the people up until the rise of the curtain.

Stomach Trouble.

"I have been troubled with my stomach for the past four years," says D. L. Beach of Clover Nook Farm, Greenfield, Mass. "A few days ago I was induced to buy a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. I have taken them of late and feel a great deal better." If you have any trouble with your stomach try a box of these Tablets. You are certain to be pleased with the result. Price 25c. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Editorial Correspondence

PHILADELPHIA, September 16th, 1903.

Old Sol lent his best efforts to give me a "hot old time" on my quadrennial outing; for yesterday he sent the mercury waltzing around the 100° mark on the shady side of the C. and O. Flyer as it sped through the border counties of Kentucky and West Virginia, and relief came only when the vales of New River were reached and the cool breezes swept down from mountain sides.

Washington was reached "without incident," as the expert ink-slingers put it, and for lack of time to call on "Teddy" and the other big wigs, I was satisfied to grasp the honest hands of J. SAUERLAND and W. W. MARMADUKE, 'phone TITE ELLIS—and to buy a first-train ticket and light out for this city, via Baltimore. Here again there was disappointment, for FRANK GRANT was so busy Grand Secretarizing the Sovereign Lodge of Oddfellows that he was not at the mouth of the big tunnel with a brass band to blow the smoke away.

I reached Philadelphia in company with the biggest storm in years, which unroofed a portion of the Broad Street Station, fairly littered the streets with dismembered umbrellas, blockaded the parks with fallen forest trees, and strewed the sidewalks with broken glass, wrecked signs and shutters, and gave the old city the appearance of having been out the night before. Fortunately, so far as yet learned, there was no loss of life, but several were injured, while the financial loss in this city, at Cape May, Atlantic City, and along the Jersey and Delaware coasts, will mount into the millions.

Indeed, it was about the most strenuous welcome I ever received at the hands of these good people, so many of whom I had known and loved in the long, long ago. However, a journey from Broad Street Station via Chestnut to Third and Walnut streets was convincing proof that my friends had not prompted the demonstration, for in that fourteen-square journey I

Distress After Eating Cured.
Judge W. T. Holland of Greensburg, La., who is well and favorably known, says: "Two years ago I suffered greatly from indigestion. After eating great distress would invariably result, lasting for an hour or so and my nights were restless. I concluded to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it cured me entirely. Now my sleep is refreshing and digestion perfect." Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

The Southern Railway has been negotiating for the purchase of 80,000 acres of coal land in the Middlesboro district in Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia, the entire property of the American Association.

DON'T WAIT.

Take Advantage of Maysville Citizen's Experience Before It's Too Late.

When the back begins to ache, Don't wait until backache becomes chronic; Till serious kidney troubles develop; Till urinary troubles destroy night's rest.

Profit by a Maysville citizen's experience.

Mrs. Elmer Bridges of 226 West Third street says:

"I learned of the great merit of Doan's Kidney Pills over a year ago while in Pittsburgh, Pa. The use of two boxes ended all symptoms of kidney trouble. I have told my friends of the remarkable value of this preparation and advised them to get it at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of Market and West Second streets, and give it trial."

saw at least twenty thousand people, not one of whom, probably, I had ever seen before—and not one of whom I knew.

And this makes one reminiscent.

I first set foot in this splendid city on the 21st of June, 1858, a little over forty-five years ago, then a boy just turned 18. By peculiar good fortune I was thrown into a lovable circle, consisting of mother, five sons, four daughters, three sons-in-law and four daughters-in-law—and it was not long until I was regarded almost as a son and brother. Of all that devoted family of seventeen, but a single one remains!

And today I met a dear old Army comrade, with whom I had entered the service April 29th, 1861. There were in the Company ninety-eight men and three officers who held up their hands in the old Girard House and swore to support their Government. Of that number but two remain, and those two today sat at table and drank in pure water to the memory of the one hundred and one that have awakened at reveille on the other side!

No wonder I walked so far through these familiar streets without finding a familiar face!

The friends we all knew nearly half a century ago are largely at rest—and we must soon follow them!

This afternoon I made a friendly call on Mr. SIM ROSENAU, Colonel HARRIS and Mr. PERRY FRANKEL, all ex-Maysville residents, and it will be gratifying to their many friends in the old town to know that they are doing an immense business here, and that they made earnest inquiry for their old acquaintances, not forgetting Colonel DAVE HECHINGER.

When the authorities get the wreckage of the storm cleared away and there is no danger of another cataclysm, I will venture out and see if I can find something else to tell the folks at home.

QUESTIONS FOR ANSWERS.

Louisville Evening Post.

"To be hanged until dead November 25th." That is Wednesday, not Friday, and it is the day before Thanksgiving. Powers is to be hanged for what? For shooting Goebel. He was not in Frankfort. For inducing Youtsey to assassinate Goebel? Youtsey says he, not Powers, pointed out Goebel to the assassin, whoever he was. For guilty knowledge? Youtsey swore Berry Howard and Hockersmith were in the room; then swore they were not. He swore Powers was innocent and then swore he was not. Youtsey is in prison for life. Howard is in prison sentenced for life and needing $100 to pay for a transcript before he can make his appeal. Powers is under sentence of death, to be executed Wednesday, the day before Thanksgiving. And the present Governor of Kentucky asks the people to vote on the proposition to hang Powers or to pardon him!

CAUTION:

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without doing its popularity all these years, you will be thankful that we called your attention to Boscobee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. At Henry W. Ray's, next door to Postoffice.
